Merry Christmas & a Happy New Year From the Christofferson Team

Another 2 months have passed since our last newsletter, and it never ceases to amaze me how quickly seasons can change. There's snow on the ground, it's bitter cold outside, and Christmas is in a few days. Did I just say "Christmas!" I sure did. Boy, does the time fly.

We want to wish your family the Merriest of Christmases. May your time with family and friends be a beautiful occasion, and may your family and friends be blessed.

Just around the corner is the year 2010 and a new decade. The last year has been pretty tough for many, many people, but the great thing about the past is that it is the past. Some great advice I once received is to not let your past dictate your future. The year 2010 is a new year, and with that, a new opportunity.

Despite the tough economy, the year 2009 has been pretty good for us. We have many of you to thank for that. We're looking into the next year with hopeful and grateful eyes.

Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, and again Thank You for all of you support.

-DJ & Cindy Christofferson

Saucy Apple Pork Chops

“Absolutely Delicious!”

A Very Easy, Very Tasty Dinner

I (DJ) was thinking of making something different for dinner the other night. We had some pork chops, but I didn't want to do the usual. So I was thinking what would be a good flavor to add and apples came to mind.

I scoured the Internet and found this simple recipe (didn't want to do too much work). My wife and I were very satisfied with the results.

Also makes great leftovers!

Ingredients:

- 2 cups applesauce (plain)
- Cinnamon to preference
- 1/3 cup brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons soy sauce
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
- 6 (1/2 inch thick) boneless pork loin chops
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Directions:

- In a bowl, combine the applesauce, cinnamon, sugar, soy sauce, garlic and ginger; mix well
- In a skillet, brown pork chops in butter
- Coat pork chops in applesauce mixture
- Place pork chops on baking pan, pour rest of applesauce on pork chops
- Bake uncovered for 325° for 30 minutes or until meat is tender
- Enjoy!!!

If You Like Movies You'll Love This Website

Everyone likes to watch movies. Everyone's taste in cinema may be different, but it sure is nice to sit back and watch a good flick. The tough part is finding a good movie!

With IMDB, you can look up pretty much any movie that was ever made: read the synopsis, look at reviews, see who the actors are...etc.

If you have an actor/actress you like, you can see every movie he or she was in. Like a director? You can see every movie he or she directed.

One thing that is really cool about IMDB.com, is that you can see what movies are coming out in the future. Can't wait to see what your favorite actor's/director's next movie will be? With this website you can find out what movies he or she has on the horizon.

Don't have a favorite actor or director but love a certain genre? For me, I enjoy war movies. With this website, I can see what the all-time top rated war movies are. The same can be said for any genre.

So if you're in the mood to rent a movie, but don't know where to start, check out www.imdb.com and you will surely find a movie that you'll enjoy!

Grandma Cindy Update

Two months ago, I had the great pleasure to share with you that my daughter Jennifer and her husband Joe found out they are expecting twins. The excitement keeps on coming!

The other week, Jennifer went to visit her doctor, and her doctor is not 100% certain, but it appears that Jennifer and Joe are having both a boy and a girl! They have some great name ideas (Caleb & Makayla) but nothing is set in stone yet.

Is it too early to start spoiling my future grandchildren? I didn't think so. I can't wait to start picking out those cute baby clothes☺.

As Jennifer's pregnancy continues, so does my anticipation. I ask that you keep Jennifer in your prayers, as the doctor said that a pregnancy with twins is always difficult. I look forward to giving you an update in the next couple of months.

Have a very Merry Christmas!

Cindy

DJ & Students Hand-out Gifts to Children

Presents are something that we tend to expect during Christmas, but that isn't the case for many, many people. Right in our surrounding area, there are thousands of children who won't receive gifts or very few. Our teen group at Family Chapel wanted to change that for at least some of those thousands of children.

We raised some money in this tough time and we were able to hand out 30 gifts to kids in need.

Each box contained coloring book, crayons, stuff animal, hat, gloves, candy canes, and a Bible.

So on a very cold night, we went out, knocked on doors in less fortunate areas and handed the gifts to the children. It was such a blessing seeing their faces light up when they were given a present. Their smiles warmed my heart, and reminded me why Jesus loves kids so much. Kids are such a blessing.

My blessings & Merry Christmas,

DJ
